ALCOHOL AS A REMOVER.

An exchange says that alcohol will remove grease sains from summer clothes, and the Danville Bresze, very breezily and truthfully adds: "The exchange is right. It will also remove summe, clothes and also the spring and autumn and winter clothes, not only from him who drinks it, but also from his wife and family; it will likewise remove the household furniture from the house, the estables from the pantry, the smiles from the face of his wife, and the happiness from the home. As a remover of things alcohol has few equals."

BROKE THE RECORD.

Newberry Observer. Last Tuesday Mr. L. W. Floyd, representing himself and a few others, made one of the largest transactions in cotton ever made in this city, and realized 9 cents all round, for the 700 bales in the transaction, the buyers being Sprunt & Sons, large importers of Wilmington, N. C. Their representative, Mr. Flenniken, of Winnsboro, was here last week and hegan negotialions for the lot, which was closed at a good price.

It was just a month ago that eight cents was paid for a big lot of cotton in Newberry.

We have since learned that Mr. Flenniken has a cured a still larger lot -S00 bales-in Laurens, for which he
